

HOT NEWS

MONDAY, December 5, 2011

EAGLE CAVE CAMPOUT THIS WEEKEND

The Troop will meet at 6:00 P.M Friday night to head to Eagle Cave in Blue River, Wisconsin. PLEASE be ON TIME so we can leave promptly. It is a 4 (+/-) hour drive. All Scouts should have eaten or can bring dinner. We hope to return by 1:30 P.M. on Sunday. Scouts should have caving clothes, plastic garbage bag to store caving clothes and shoes on way home, sleeping bag and cot (label with name). Plastic tarp for over (or over/under if no cot), flashlight and extra batteries, spending money if desired.

O.A. NEWS

Congratulations to all Troop members who attended the December Chapter Meeting – a NEW record was set for attendance! Don't forget – register for the Winter Banquet (January 7th in Batavia) and check if special deal on dues payment. Visit the Lodge web site: www.aa41.org.

For details contact Joe Hyken or Mr. Carden.

TROOP DUES NOTICE

Scouts who want to remain a member of Troop 23 need to have their dues of $75 paid by next week. A rebate to your Scout Account will be made in the amount of $35 if you made the minimum on wreath sales.

TURN IN WREATH AND POPCORN MONEY

Please make sure you turn in ALL your wreath and popcorn money as soon as you collect it. ALL products should have been delivered by now – so ALL money should be in by next week. Please see Mr. Povinelli for money turn in.

SCOUTMASTER CONFERENCE SIGN UP

All our Scouts go through a Scoutmaster Conference (SMC) for each rank advancement. These are hard to do on Mondays, but Mr. Jeffers is usually available during the week after school or on many days over vacation. Please make sure you schedule an SMC with him by calling (630) 682-3388 during the day.

UNIFORMS NEEDED

HELP! Our Uniform Exchange is VERY LOW. If you, or a relative or friend, have any "experienced" uniforms or Scouting gear that another Scout could benefit from, please turn it in any Monday night to Tom Koener or Tim Schubert.

EAGLE COURT OF HONOR

Mark your calendar for Sunday, January 8, 2012, for the Eagle Court of Honor for Zach Ewoldt.

Please join us for this special occasion as we recognize this significant accomplishment!